The need

To succeed, emerging artists must apply all their skills, determination and total commitment to their career, and may confront many technical and logistical hurdles, all in a very competitive environment. This pathway can be very expensive too, and a lack of funds is a strong deterrent. The Trust's annual scholarship grant is $10,000 and is specifically targeted to a type of singer, one that is already qualified, has demonstrated tenacity and has the special skills required. The Trust's grant may only meet a small proportion of the artist's financial commitment required and artists often seek different sources of support.

You can help

A donation from you will help these New Zealand artists to develop further and hopefully gain ultimate recognition here and overseas, contributing to NZ performing arts overall. So, your financial support is appreciated and needed.

Please consider choosing one of the suggested categories of support:

- Bronze $50
- Silver $250
- Gold $1000
- Platinum is reserved for those supporters or key sponsors who can significantly assist the pathway of an artist, or delivery of a Trust event and thus, worthy of direct communication with the Trust
